

Looking for A Workshop Presenter or Speaker that is Electrifying?

Frank Withrow is the person to keep in mind

He understands the needs of today's educators, parents and community members.

He is aware of the monumental issues facing our youth, schools and parents.

He adds inspiration, fun, food for thought and participant involvement to his presentations.

He shares proven research-based strategies that work.

He can ignite the fire in adults and students.

His presentation is custom designed for your audience.

Frank has a master's degree in Educational Administration from California State University, Sacramento. He has spent 35 years working with pre-teens, teenagers, teachers and families. His foremost priority is planting the seeds of knowledge and self-esteem in students.

As the chairperson of the United Black Student Unions of California Advisory Board, he works with over one thousand African-American high school students and one hundred schools.

He has published over 30 books, posters, calendars and educational raps and is known as "The Middle Aged Rapper".

Frank's posters include:

Ebony Queen

Rhymin' With Additon

To Be Somebody

Solid Foundation

Ebony King

Self Esteem

A Positive Way

Do Right

Positive Mental Attitude

Smart Moves

The Parent Rap

Women of Excellence

Frank has conducted workshops or been a keynote speaker at the following conferences:

National Coalition of Title I/Chapter I Parents

National Association of Elementary School Principals

California Association of Compensatory Education

Center For Youth Citizenship

California Department of Social Services Teen Forum

Office Location:

5524 Assembly Court, Ste 12

Sacramento, CA 95823

(916) 548-8702

Mailing Address:

8660 Red Clover Way

Elk Grove, CA 95624

Fax: (916) 681-1179

Frank Withrow "The Middle Aged Rapper"